THE dealers of Kipling and Skin Inc products have joined hands with Asia Inc Forum to celebrate women in Brunei and treat delegates to attractive Kipling and Skin Inc products worth B$150 per delegate.

Kipling products are used by about 35 million women in more than 60 countries throughout the world.

Prominent customers of the highly popular Kipling bag include famous celebrities the likes of Janet Jackson, Fergie and Courtney Cox, to name a few.

Skin Inc, meanwhile is the world's first Skin Supplement Bar that offers highly concentrated, 100 per cent pure and active serums and skincare products from Japan. Skin Inc provides customised skincare solutions to time-starved ladies with its individual fuss-free skincare regimes.

This year's Women's Forum, which carries the theme "Women Rising: New Aspirations, New Challenges", will bring together 300 women from the corporate community, government sector, academia, entrepreneurs and members of women's organisations and social circles. The Forum is meant as a platform for participants to learn, network and share experiences on key issues and challenges, and to highlight the important roles of women in finance, leadership and entrepreneurship as well as their unique abilities in making a difference.

The forum will feature distinguished women achievers from abroad including Datin Marina Mahathir, distinguished columnist, socio-blogger, women's rights advocate and daughter of Malaysia's fourth Prime Minister; Ms Veronica Colondam, Founder and CEO of Yayasan Cinta Anak Bangsa, an Indonesian organisation that has a strong track record in protecting young urban children from drugs; and Ms Carol Yip, a certified personal finance coach and author of "Smart Money User" and "Money Rules".

The forum will also honour outstanding Brunei women leaders at a "Tribute to Brunei Women Leaders".

The Women's Forum is organised by Asia Inc Forum in corporate partnership with the Brunei Economic Development Board and BIBD and with Borneo Bulletin and Media Permata as media partners, with the support of Suci, Kipling and Skin Inc.
